- If you regularly go jogging, stick to well-lit roads and consider changing your route. If you wear a headset, remember that you cannot hear traffic or somebody approaching from behind you.

- If you are attacked, call police immediately. By attending the scene quickly, the police are more likely to catch your attackers. You must report the incident to Student Support & Welfare Officer as soon as possible.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

Evacuation procedures are in place for all APTC campuses and workplaces. It is your responsibility to learn and remember as well as abide by instructions of APTC staff, to prepare for an emergency (e.g. tsunami, fire, earthquake or political upheaval).

Fire Safety

The risk of fire at APTC facilities is low, but the kitchen and workshops have a higher risk of fire breaking out. Familiarise yourself with the locations and type of fire extinguishers in your building. Know the nearest exits in your classrooms, accommodation, and kitchen and workshop areas.

Building Evacuation

During an evacuation from the classroom or accommodation, leave the building quickly by the nearest exit door. Do not run.

Assemble at the designated assembly point to be accounted for. Keep a lookout for your roommate or classmates. Do not leave the assembly point until directed by designated officer. Do not re-enter the building until an "All Clear" is given by a designated officer.

Cyclones

Monitor cyclone advice and levels from reliable sources. Tune in to your local radio/TV for further information and warnings. Stay indoors until officially advised that it is safe.

Earthquakes

During an earthquake, remain calm and reassure others. If you are outside - move to an open area away from buildings with high walls, electrical lines and coconut trees. If you are inside a building - take cover under a sturdy table or other furniture or in doorways.

Otherwise, seek cover against an interior wall and protect your head and neck with your arms.

Stay away from windows, bookcases, file cabinets, shelves, large free standing furniture, hanging plants and heavy objects that could fall. Hold position until the ground stops shaking and it is safe to come out. Do not attempt to vacate buildings during an earthquake. If it is safe to do so, leave the building immediately.

Tsunamis

If you feel earth tremors, see the warning signs of a tsunami, or if you receive an official warning, evacuate immediately to higher ground or well away from the water 's edge.

Wait at a safe place until an "All Clear" is given by a designated officer.

- d) Where there is an emergent need for surgery or hospitalisation for a life-threatening medical condition, APTC country management team will make a decision on payment of medical costs to the hospital and associated claim procedures.

What are the procedures to follow in the event of an accident/injury?

1. Notify your training supervisor or an APTC staff member immediately
2. Call for Medical Help immediately
3. APTC staff will assist with transporting you to the nearest medical centre
4. APTC staff will assist with notifying the insurance company of the incident
5. APTC will also assist with paying for medical expenses covered by the insurance
6. Witnesses to the incident may be interviewed (recorded by APTC)
7. APTC will lodge a claim and submit to the insurer to reimburse the costs paid by APTC.

What are some incidents' not covered by the insurance?

Insurance protection does not apply in the following instances:

- pregnancy
- pre-existing medical condition or illness e.g. diabetes, TB, HIV etc
- neglect or if an injury/accident was self-inflicted
- travel related loss whilst the student is residing or studying in their country of Residence

CLIC health plus insurance - PNG students

Due to high risks, high medical costs and locational issues in PNG, nominated students are covered for general medical insurance. Medical costs are fully paid by the student (100%) at the time of consultation. Students claim this back by submitting signed Claims Form with accompanying receipts to the APTC.

ATTENDANCE, ASSESSMENTS AND PROGRESS OF STUDY

Attendance

You should attend all classes, vocational placement and any other scheduled training related activity as part of your course on time. Unsatisfactory attendance will be reported to the Country Director and may result in disciplinary action.

- i. It is your responsibility to advise your trainer or vocational placement supervisors (before 8am or one hour before your shift if on placement) of your inability to attend classes or scheduled training. Keep a record of your communication regarding your absence.
- ii. Attendance will be monitored and recorded by the trainer. If you are undertaking vocational placement, you are required to have an attendance sheet signed off by your vocational placement supervisor and return it to the APTC campus on a fortnightly or weekly basis or at the completion of your placement. Your trainer will provide guidance.
- iii. If your absence is for medical reasons, you will be required to produce a medical certificate.
- iv. Remember – it's not ok to be away. You must attend classes and you must be on time.

The following excuses will not be accepted for missing classes:

- I don't like the unit of competency
 - I was sick (a medical certificate supplied by a doctor is required for every day you are sick)
 - I had a doctor's appointment
- v. Legitimate absence (family issues) - if there is serious sickness or a death in your family and you need to be absent from class, discuss the matter with your trainer and Country Director who will advise you of your responsibilities and what APTC can do to best assist you in these circumstances.
 - vi. You will not be paid your living allowance for days that you are absent from classes except where there is a legitimate reason, for example in the case of sickness.
 - vii. It is not permitted for students to travel out of their country of study during the duration of their training delivery. This includes mid-semester breaks. If an emergency or family situation occurs, a student may request special permission from the Country Director to travel to their home country.

Course Progress

You are expected to make satisfactory progress in your studies. At times you may have difficulty in attending classes, completing assessments and passing exams. There can be very good reasons for this which are sometimes beyond your control. APTC has learning support frameworks to ensure you receive adequate study support and have every opportunity to complete your studies.

If you are having difficulty maintaining acceptable progress, you must discuss the situation with your trainer as soon as possible.

Satisfactory Student Performance

APTC will regularly monitor your study and personal progress during your course.

Remember:

- if you have problems with your study, talk to your trainer
- if you have problems with your vocational placement supervisor, raise these issues with your trainer
- if your progress is not satisfactory for any reason, you receive assistance
- unsatisfactory progress in your studies may put your enrolment at risk

Confidentiality

As a student of APTC, you may be required to attend vocational placement or live work as part of your studies. During these activities, you may become familiar with information that is confidential to that workplace (for example financial or business affairs, personal affairs and family background of staff and clients, technical information). You must not share any confidential information that you become aware of during live work or vocational placement. Breaches of confidentiality will be considered to be acts of behavioural misconduct and will result in disciplinary action.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) or Credit Transfer

You may have the opportunity to be granted RPL for a unit of competency based on skills and knowledge you have already gained through previous work, life experiences, education or training.

If you believe you have the experience and previous learning to be assessed for RPL, speak to your trainer at the start of your program so they can advise you. Further information is available on the APTC website.

If you have studied the same unit of competency previously (this must be a unit of competency conferred by an Australian accredited registered training provider) and can provide evidence of competence, then you are eligible for a credit transfer. Discuss this directly with your trainer or administration officer at orientation if you think this applies to you.

Assessment

There will be a variety of assessment methods used during your training and may include written and practical tasks, work-based activities and assignments.

You are responsible for:

- i. Complying with all assessment instructions, submission and collection instructions
- ii. Submitting assessment items by the due date
- iii. Applying for an extension to assessment due date in special circumstances, such as illness or bereavement, must be supported by documentation and submitted before the original due date for consideration by your trainer
- iv. Undertaking assessment tasks honestly, without any form of cheating, plagiarism or collusion
- v. Retaining a copy of all of your completed assessment items

Reasonable Adjustment

If you have a disability or medical condition and believe you may require adjustments to assessment, discuss options with your trainer. It is important to provide documentation from a health professional to help guide this process.

There are basic requirements of each course that must be met by students to be deemed competent and these cannot be changed. Your trainer can provide you with more information.

If you consider you will be disadvantaged, due to literacy/language competency, disability or unusual circumstances, you may request an alternative assessment, before the assessment is undertaken. These requests:

- Should be submitted directly to the trainer.
- Will be verified with specialist staff.
- Will be approved/ not approved and documented by the trainer.

For further information, contact APTC staff.

Feedback and Results

APTC uses a competency based, skills-orientated learning system that is different from schools, colleges and universities. For each assessment task completed, you will receive an outcome of satisfactory (S) or unsatisfactory (U).

Assessment Feedback

Your trainer will provide you with feedback on all submitted assessments.

Re-submission/Re-assessment

If you do not satisfy the assessment requirement on your first attempt, you will receive feedback from your trainer and may negotiate a second attempt or resubmission of the assessment item.

Second attempts or resubmission of an assessment item may be granted, only when the trainer considers that you have made a genuine attempt at the first assessment.

Only one reassessment or resubmission attempt may be granted for each assessment item. You may be given a different assessment item, although it must assess the same elements of competency.

If you do not attempt the reassessment or fail to resubmit the assessment item on/by the negotiated due date, you will be given an 'unsatisfactory' result for the assessment item. If you attempt the reassessment and it is again assessed as unsatisfactory, you will be given an 'unsatisfactory' result for the assessment item.

No reassessments or late submissions are allowed after the due date and/or final result for the unit/s of competency has been issued and you will be required to re-enrol and pay enrolment fees.

You are required to retain a copy of all completed assessment items. In the case of an appeal, copies of the relevant completed assessment items should be retained until the appeal is finalised.

Results

When you have completed all assessment tasks for a unit, you will receive a final result.

- You must satisfactorily complete all assessment tasks for a unit to be awarded "Competency achieved" (J)
- You must have attempted all the assessment tasks for a unit and been judged as being unsatisfactory in one or more assessment tasks to be awarded "Competency not achieved" (M)
- You will be 'Withdrawn / Discontinued' (AW) if you have engaged in learning activity, but have not attempted all assessment tasks or have officially withdrawn

A Record of Results will be provided to you with your Certificate at graduation. Should you not be successful in achieving the full qualification, you will be provided with a Statement of Attainment which lists the units of competency you have been able to achieve.

Re-evaluation of Assessment Item/Review of Final Grade

If you are dissatisfied with the result of an assessment and believe it to be wrong, you should first discuss the matter with your trainer. If there has been a mistake, a recommendation will be made to the delegated officer for the result to be amended. If you are still not satisfied, you may make application for a review of final grade to the Vocational Training Manager at your campus of study.

Assessment Appeals

If following the re-evaluation and/or assessment or review of your final grade, you are still dissatisfied, you may lodge an academic appeal to the Complaints and Appeals Committee based on the following grounds:

- that the decision is grossly unreasonable
- that procedural requirements were not followed
- that relevant evidence was not considered in reaching the decision or that irrelevant evidence was relied upon in reaching the decision
- that fresh evidence has become available
- that a penalty imposed was excessive or inappropriate

See Appeals section on page 39.

MISCONDUCT AND CONSEQUENCES

Student misconduct includes both academic misconduct and behavioural misconduct.

Academic Misconduct (Cheating, Plagiarism and Collusion)

This refers to study related breaches including cheating, plagiarism and copying work from textbooks or the internet, without acknowledgement and authority. You are asked to express your own ideas and not copy them from someone else. Remember to reference copyright works you use.

GRIEVANCES (COMPLAINTS) AND APPEALS

APTC is committed to providing a fair, safe and productive learning environment for you. As a student of APTC, you have the right to lodge a grievance and appeal decisions if you believe you have been treated in a manner which is likely to have an unreasonable negative impact on you. - be accompanied or supported by another person (other than a legal practitioner) during informal or formal processes

Complaints or Grievances

If you wish to make a complaint, you should raise your concerns as soon as possible with the individual concerned, the aim being to resolve the problem directly and informally. If you feel you are unable to approach the individual or are not satisfied with the initial response, contact your relevant trainer or staff member.

You may lodge a formal grievance in writing to APTC which will be managed in accordance with the APTC Student Complaints and Appeals Policy. Your grievance will be documented and managed fairly under the Policy. Grievances are classified into academic and non-academic matters:

Academic Grievances (but are not limited to):

Appeal

For instances of major or exceptional cases of unresolved appeals or misconduct, further appeals can be made in writing to the APTC CEO within 10 business days of receiving notification from the APTC Complaints and Appeals Committee decision and must fully set out the grounds for appeal.

If you are still dissatisfied with the outcome of the internal appeals process, you have the right to take your case to an external independent body. The purpose of an external appeal is to review the decision-making processes undertaken by APTC to determine the fairness of the decision. APTC can provide you with a list of independent reviewers, if required.

You may lodge an appeal to the APTC CEO within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision.

STUDY GUIDE AND TIPS

Learning at APTC

It is important to be aware that there will be differences between the training delivery and assessment methods used at APTC and those you may have experienced in your previous study or work place.

For example, the main styles of training and learning you have previously encountered may have focused on remembering and repeating information. The learning style at APTC often differs from these methods, and is based on practical training and assessments.

APTC trainers offer vocational placement, knowledge, information, ideas and facts, and also encourage you to explore and find additional knowledge from sources and books other than those used in class.

Asking the trainer questions and discussing what is being said in class is encouraged and not seen as being disrespectful or challenging to the trainer's authority. Instead this shows your interest and willingness to participate in class.

Ensuring Your Success

Your success will be a result of planning, motivation, hard work, time management, some sacrifices, evaluation and review.

Many things may affect your studies. New surroundings, studying with people from different cultures, being away from home, making new friends, wanting to do well, issues of separation, family commitments or isolation and balancing work and study may affect your academic performance.

Effective Study Skills

Effective study skills are about more than understanding the course content and must be practised in order for you to improve. It is not enough to simply 'think about' studying. In order to develop your current study skills, it is important that you consider the following:

The Value of a Schedule

Before you even think about the process of studying, you must develop a schedule.

If you don't have a schedule or plan for studying, you do not have a way of managing your time when the unexpected occurs. A good, well-thought out schedule can be a lifesaver.

You may not get it right the first time. The secret is to regularly review what works well and what does not, and revise your schedule as required. You will need to change your study priorities according to how you are progressing with your course work and assessments.

The Process of Study

Time is the most valuable resource. It is also one of the most wasted of resources. To maximise the use of your time, here are a few helpful suggestions:

- Plan enough time for study. If you are unsure of how much time to commit to study, ask your trainer for advice.
- Study at the same time every day. Regular hours are easier to follow.
- Make use of the free hours during the day. If you have free hours between classes, use these to review material or edit notes and to study the material that will be covered in your next class.
- Plan study periods to follow class periods whenever possible.
- Fifty to ninety minutes of study at a time for each course works best. Relaxation periods of ten to fifteen minutes should be scheduled between study periods. It is more efficient to study hard for a definite period of time, and then stop for a few minutes, then attempt to study on indefinitely.
- Plan for weekly reviews. At least one hour each week for each class (distinct from study time) should be scheduled. The weekend is a good time for review.
- Leave some unscheduled time for flexibility. Lack of flexibility is the major reason why schedules fail. Students tend to over-schedule themselves.
- Allow time for planned recreation, campus and church activities, etc. When you plan your schedule, you should begin by listing the activities that come at fixed hours and cannot be changed. Classes and workshop, sleep, and work for money are examples of time 'uses' which you may not be able to alter. Next, you can schedule your flexible time commitments. These hours can be interchanged with other hours if you find that your schedule must be changed during the week. Recreational activities are planned last.

- Set up study groups with fellow students. This can be a good way to expand on your knowledge and understanding.
- Use all assistance offered by APTC trainers and staff.

Where to Study

You can study anywhere. Libraries, study lounges or private rooms are best. Study at a desk with good lighting and a comfortable chair. Most importantly, do not get distracted by music, friends or phone.

Research

- Find out as much as you can about APTC and campus facilities
- Take a campus tour
- Ask to be shown how to use the library resources
- APTC staff can help with learning strategies, report writing and literacy and numeracy skills
- Get to know your trainer and other APTC staff

Be Organised

- Divide work into immediate and less urgent
- Put tasks in order of urgency and break the big tasks down into smaller parts – the more you break down your work into small tasks, the more you're likely to find the time to do them
- Draw up a calendar of when all your assessments are due and display it in a prominent place
- Try to get ahead in your work, so that if a crisis arises you won't fall behind too easily
- Find a special place and time for working to help create the right mood to concentrate on study
- Don't worry. It will take time to get into a routine of study, so don't put too much pressure on yourself

Share Your Experiences

- Meet other students and talk about your good and bad experiences
- Organise social activities for yourself, other friends and/or family members
- If it all seems too much, approach your trainer or the Student Support & Welfare Officer for support

Take Time Out

Be kind to yourself and, where possible, take some time out to do something that you enjoy, such as playing sport, reading a book or watching a movie.

Student Skills

Remembering information is an important skill but in addition to this, students are encouraged to develop independent thinking. Students will be expected to:

- take notes during class
- ask questions of the trainers
- attend all classes (unless ill and able to produce a doctor 's certificate)
- be on time to classes
- remain in class for the whole lesson if you have a valid reason to leave the lesson early, this must be approved at the start of the day/lesson by your trainer
- hand in original (your own) work
- develop research and library skills
- complete all assessment tasks by the due dates
- participate in class
- request help if needed
- read prescribed texts plus additional reading

Socialising

Socialising is an important part of your time at APTC. Joining any social, sporting or specific interest groups or associations is a great way to meet new people and have fun.

Study and Family

Studying and looking after a family at the same time can be challenging. The following may help you manage both:

- Inform - make sure family members know why study is important to you. When your family understands why you are studying and the pressures you face, they are more likely to help you and give you the time you need to study.
- Plan - write up a new household chores roster and involve each family member in the process. You won't be able to do as much around the house now that you're studying.
- Time - work out a schedule to ensure that each week includes time for family. Students do get breaks between training blocks – look forward to them.
- Share - get together with other students who are also managing a family. You can share your experiences and advise one another.

Study and Work

Studying and working at the same time can also be challenging. Follow these guidelines and use your APTC Student Handbook & Diary to help manage your time between work and study:

- plan - develop a schedule for work and study to follow.
- start a "to-do list" - keep a to-do list to make sure you finish every task.
- use time well - don't waste your time. Make the most of your free time to study. You can always study while on public transport, instead of watching tv or first thing in the morning when you wake up.
- say no - learn to say no when people try to add more on to your already busy schedule. Make sure your employer knows you can't take on extra hours.
- inform - keep your employer and trainers informed about your situation and your commitments, so that they can be flexible as well. Keeping them informed is the best way to avoid problems in the future.

These are opportunities for your achievements to be recognised and celebrated with government representatives, industry and community leaders, and family and friends. You will receive your Certificate and record of results at graduation.

GRADUATE TRACER SURVEY

APTC's commitment to the continuous improvement of its services includes conducting a survey of its graduates after 6-12 months of their graduation.

It is important that students participate in such surveys that will be used to determine the effectiveness of APTC programs and provide feedback to help improve APTC training and support services.

To ensure that your feedback is properly captured in the surveys, APTC will need to be able to contact you after you have graduated from APTC. It is the student's responsibility to inform APTC about current contact details. If your email, Facebook account or phone number changes, then contact the relevant APTC campus or representatives in your country to update your information.

APTC ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Your journey with APTC begins as a student and will continue even after you graduate, through the APTC Alumni Association (Alumni) which will assist you to stay connected and engaged with APTC and fellow alumni.

APTC Alumni Association aims to connect and engage the Alumni of APTC by fostering lifelong connection with APTC by developing a lasting and mutually beneficial relationship between APTC and its alumni. Together the Alumni and APTC will support the development of local, regional and international professional networking in the Pacific Island Forum countries.

The goals of the Alumni are to:

- Strengthen communications between alumni and APTC
- Develop and support alumni volunteer leadership
- Enhance alumni connections with APTC, students and the community
- Encourage participation in alumni development programs

Alumni Chapters have been established in Fiji, Samoa, PNG, Vanuatu, Kiribati, Tonga and Solomon Islands. Members of the Alumni will automatically become members of the country Alumni Chapter where they reside.

The Alumni program of events, correspondence, meetings, various alumni chapters, and social media enable members to connect personally and professionally with other graduates.

Membership

APTC Alumni members are committed to retaining their connections with the APTC and are proud advocates for the training they have received with the College. You can become one of these proud advocates as well. Visit the APTC Alumni website for more details: www.aptc.edu.au/alumni

As of January 2013, all graduates of APTC automatically become members of the Alumni and membership is free. If you know anyone who graduated from APTC before 2013, please encourage them to register through the online registration form:

<https://www.aptc.edu.au/alumni/membership/registration>

APTC is supported by the Australian Government and
